

Heatherbloom taffeta petticoats special.

"Heatherbloom," a wonderful substitute for taffeta—a fabric whose qualities are sure to attract the consideration of every woman.

It seems almost too good to be true that women who could only afford one or two perishable taffeta petticoats, may now rejoice in four or five dainty skirts of "Heatherbloom," lustrous enough to deceive the most careful observer as to its nature, durable enough to outlast a half a dozen skirts of silk taffeta and without that harsh rustle which has become so abhorrent to the smartly gowned woman. Our introductory price on them. Special $3.49
